

CAN YOU DANCE THE POLKA

C F G C
As I walked out on Broadway one evening in July
F G C
I met a girl who asked my trade, a sailor John says I

Chorus

F G C
Then away you Santee, my dear Annie
F G C
Oh you New York girls, can you dance the Polka

C F G C
To Tiffany's I took her, I did not mind expense
F G C
I bought her two gold earrings, they cost me fifteen cents

F G C
Then away you Santee, my dear Annie
F G C
Oh you New York girls, can you dance the Polka
C F G C
She says "You limejuice sailor, now see me home you may."
F G C
But when we reached her cottage door she unto me did say....

F G C
Then away you Santee, my dear Annie,
F G C
Oh you New York girls, can you dance the Polka

C F G C
My flashman, he's a Yankee with his hair cut close behind,
F G C
He wears a tarry jumper and he sails the Black Ball Line

F G C
And away you Santee, my dear Annie,
F G C
Oh you New York Girls, can you dance the Polka.
