

THAT SUMMER
Garth Brooks

D I went to work for her that summer, a teenage kid so far from home, Bm
G She was a lonely widow woman, hell bent to make it on her own. A
D We were a thousand miles from nowhere, wheatfields as far as I could see, Bm
G-A Both needing something from each other, not knowing yet what that might be. D
Bm Till she came to me one evening, hot cup of coffee and a smile,
G In a dress that I was certain she hadn't worn in quite a while. A
D There was a difference in her laughter, there was a softness in her eye, Bm
G - A And on the air there was a hunger even a boy could recognize. D

Chorus

A - G She had a need to feel the thunder chase the lightning from the sky A D
G To watch the storm with all its wonder raging in her lovers eye, A
D - G She had to ride the heated passion, like a comet burning bright, D
G Rushing headlong in the wind, as her only dreams had been, A
D Burning both ends of the night.
D That summer wind was all around me, nothing between us but the night, Bm
G And when I told I had never, she softly whispered 'That's all right'. A
D And then I watched her hands of leather turn to velvet in a touch, Bm
G - A There's never been a summer, that I have ever learned so much. D

Chorus.....We....etc

D I often think about that summer, the sweat, the moonlight and the lace Bm
G And I have rarely held another when I haven't seen her face. A
D And every time I pass a wheatfield and watch it dancing with the wind Bm
G Although I know it isn't real, I just can't help but feel her hungry arms again. A D
