

BELFAST

Barnbrack

G Dm G F C G etc

G Dm G F C G
Of all the places I have been, there's only one that fills my dreams,
G Dm G F D
The place that lingers in my mind, is the town I've left behind.
G C
I've been away now for too many years,
D G D
I've read all the papers, they've told of your tears.
G C
Though I've left you, with a heart that's been torn,
D G D
I'm coming home now, to the place I was born

Chorus

G- Em C- Am D- D7 G D
That's Belfast, you call to me, when I am far away, I think of thee
G- Em C- Am
Your Black Mountain, Cave Hill, City Hall,
D- D7 G D
Shaw's Bridge, River Lagan, I'm going home to them all

G C
I'll meet friends and relations, each one I'll embrace,
D G D
We'll pass round the pictures, which time can't erase.
G C
And it won't be long now, till I see them all,
D G D
And I'll walk round the old streets and good times I'll recall
