

BLACK GOLD

Jolly Beggarmen

G C G
There's good money don't you fear, said the man down by the pier

Em D D7
For the sea is the life and it's dawning

G C G
Won't you change to new black gold, where once the herring shoaled

D G CG
There's black gold in the deep waters Johnny

Chorus

D D7 G Em D D7
Where the North Sea wind is blowing, And a day is a lifetime too long

G C G
Where we build, sweat and toil to take the oceans oil

D G CG
There's black gold in the deep waters Johnny

G C G
There are men from Scapa Flow and a kid from Sandy Row

Em D D7
And set for men who look all spit and sparkle

G C G
And the money sounding big, just try riding on the rig

D G CG
Would you change to new black gold without your gargle

Chorus Where the North sea wind is blowing etc

G C G
There's twelve hour shifts to do, playing nursemaid to the crew,

Em D D7
There's loneliness and fear and empty ocean.

G C G
From the Shetlands to the Kiss they're chasing oil instead of fish

D G CG
For black gold in the deep waters Johnny.

Chorus Where the North Sea wind is blowing etc.

C G
Sure the rig's a second home sitting pretty o'er the foam

Em D D7
A way of life that's new to every nation.

G C G
And there's a hundred extra quid to go diving with the squid

D G CG
For black gold in the deep waters Johnny chorus twice, then end.
