

DONEGAL DANNY

C (capo 2)

C F C F C
I remember the night that he came in, the wind right cold and damp.
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
A giant of a man in an oilskin coat and the bundle that said he was a tramp.
C F C F C
He stood at the bar and he called a pint, then turned and gazed at the fire,
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
On a night like this, to be safe and dry was my one and only desire.
C F C G
So here's to those that are dead and gone, the friends that I love dear.
C F C G C
And here's to you and I'll bid you adieu saying Donegal Danny's been here me
Am C G C
boysSaying Donegal Danny's been here.
C F C F C
Then in a voice that was hushed and low he said listen I'll tell you a tale
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
How a man of the sea became a man of the road and never more will set sail.
C F C F C
I've fished on a boat out of Killybegs, Ardglass and Baltimore,
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
But the cruel sea has beaten me and I'll end my days on the shore

CHORUS

C F C F C
One fateful night in the wind and the rain we set sail from Killybegs town.
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
There were five of us from sweet Donegal and one from County Down.
C F C F C
We were fishermen who worked the sea and never counted the cost
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
But I never thought that when night was done my five fine friends would all be lost.

CHORUS

C F C F C
Then the storm it broke and drove the boat on the rocks about ten miles from shore.
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
As we fought the tide we hoped inside to see our homes once more.
C F C F C
Then we struck a rock and holed the bow, and all of us knew that she'd go down,
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
So we jumped right into the icy seas and hoped to God we wouldn't drown.
C F C F C
But the raging sea was rising still as we struck out for the sand

Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
And she fought with all her cruelty to claim that gallant band.
C F C F C
By St John's point in the early dawn I dragged myself from the shore
Am Dm Dm7 G7 G
And I cursed the sea for what she'd done, and vowed to sail no more... Chorus
