

MARY FROM DUNGLOE

G capo3

G D C G C G
Oh then fare ye well sweet Donegal, the Rosses and Gweedore

D C D C G Em
I'm crossing the main ocean where the foaming billows roar.

G D C D C G Em
It breaks my heart from you to part, where I spent many happy days.

G D C G C G
Farewell to kind relations, I'm bound for Amerikay.

G D C G C G
Oh my love is tall and handsome and her age is scarce eighteen.

D C D C G Em
She far exceeds all other fair maids when she trips o'er the green.

G D C D C G Em
Her lovely neck and shoulders are fairer than the snow.

G D C G C G
Till the day I die I'll ne'er deny my Mary of Dungloe.

G D C G C G
If I was at home in sweet Dungloe a letter I would write.

D C D C G Em
Kind thoughts would fill my bosom for Mary, my delight.

G D C D C G Em
Tis in her fathers garden the fairest violets grow.

G D C G C G
And 'twas there I came to court the maid, my Mary of Dungloe.

G D C G C G
Ah then Mary you're my hearts delight, my pride and only care.

G D C D C G Em
It was your cruel father would not let me stay there.

G D C D C G Em
But absence makes the heart grow fonder, and when I'm o'er the main

G D C G C G
May the Lord protect my darling girl till I return again.

G D C G C G
And I wished I was in sweet Dungloe and seated on the grass

D C D C G Em
And by my side a bottle of wine, and on my knee a lass.

G D C D C G Em
I'd call for liquor of the best and I'd pay before I would go.

G D C G C G
And I'd roll my Mary in my arms, in the town of sweet Dungloe
