

MY LAGAN SOFTLY FLOWING

F C D7 G C

C Early in the morning the sun begins to rise,
F C Am D D7 G

Reflected on her waters the movement of the skies

C Slowly she flows onward, disturbed I cannot see,
F C Am D7 G C

Through fields and rolling meadows, past local industry

CHORUS

F My Lagan she flows softly from Slieve Croob down to the sea
C

F C D D7 G
Through Dromore and Dromara then close to Aghalee

C From Lisburn down to Hilden, Lambeg and then Shaws Bridge
F C Am D7 G C

To Belfast's salty waters where her lonesome journey ends

C The years pass slowly onwards, changes soon unfold
F C Am D D7 G

No more horses pulling the barges filled with coal

C The old loch gates are rotted, the pathways overgrown
F C Am D7 G C

But still I love to see her as slowly she grows old

CHORUS

C Oh memories they are precious and they are brought to life
F C Am D D7 G

As you walk along the towpath in the evenings fading light

C But even now the nightlife begins a brand new day
F C Am D7 G C

Some ripples on the surface and a trout moves on her way

CHORUS

C Young lovers they walk slowly beside my Lagan's stream
F C Am D D7 G

Holding hands and talking about their wildest dreams

C

Across the water laughter comes drifting through the night

F C AmD7 G C

Dancing shadows ripple in the moonshine light

CHORUS
