Carry him if you can,.....Oh the crack was ninety in the Isle of Man.

Before we reached the Alexander Bays, a ding dong we did surely raise
In the bar of the boat, at Prince Port, as the ship she sailed out from the port.
Landed up in the Douglas Head, enquiring for a decent bed,
In the dining room we soon were showed, by a decent woman from up the road,
Take it if you can,.....Oh the crack was ninety in the Isle of Man.

Next morning went for a round of the round, to see the sights of Douglas town
We all went in for a mighty session in a pub they call Dick Darby's.
All got drunk by half past three, to sober up we went swimming in the sea,
Back to the digs for a spruce up while waiting for the rosie.
We all drew up our plans.....Oh the crack was ninety in the Isle of Man.

That night we went to the Texas Bar, we came back down by horse and car,
Met big Jim and we all went in for to drink some wine in Yates's.
The Liverpool girls, it was said, were all to be met in the Douglas Head
Shane was there in a tie and shirt, with the foreign girls he was trying to flirt
Saying 'Hey girls I'm yer man.'.....Oh the crack was ninety in the Isle of Man

Oh Wacker fancied his good luck, with an Isle of Man woman he was struck,
A Liverpool lad was fired aside as he was pegging a jar into her.
Wacky thought he'd take a chance, so he asked the fair one up for a dance
Round the floor they stepped it out, sure to Wack it was no bother.
Everything was going to plan.....Oh the crack was ninety in the Isle of Man.

The Isle of Man woman fancied Wack, yer man stood there till his heads came back
And whack, they all whacked into Wack and Wack was landed on his back.
The Douglas Force arrived as well, landed a couple of belts as well
Ended up in the Douglas jail until the Dublin boat did sail,
Reported every man..... oh the crack was ninety in the Isle of Man
