

THE MERMAID

G C G C D G
It was Friday morn when we set sail and we were not far from the land
G C G C D G
Our Captain he spied a mermaid so fair with a comb and a glass in her hand

Chorus

G C G G D
And the ocean waves do roll, and the stormy winds do blow
G C G C D
And we poor sailor boys were sitting up aloft while the landlubbers lay down
G C D G
below below below, while the landlubbers lay down below

G C G C D G
Then up spoke the Captain of our gallant ship, and a fine spoken man was he,
G C G C D G
This fishy mermaid has warned me of our doom we shall sink to the bottom of thesea

Chorus.....

G C G C D G
Then up spoke the mate of our gallant ship, and a grand old fellow was he
G C G C D G
Saying I have a wife in Salem by the sea and tonight she a widow will be.

Chorus.....

G C G C D G
Then up spoke the cabin boy of our gallant ship, and a cheeky young laddie was he.
G C G C D G
Saying I have a girlfriend in Brooklyn by the sea and tonight she'll be weeping for me.

Chorus.....

G C G C D G
Then up spoke the cook of our gallant ship, and a bloody old butcher was he
G C G C D G
Saying I care no more for my pots and pans, they shall sink to the bottom of the sea.

Chorus....

G C G C D G
Then three times around spun our gallant ship, and three times around spun she
G C G C D G
Three times around spun our gallant ship, and she sank to the bottom of the sea

Chorus twiceend
